

CILFACH COTTAGE, LLANFYLLIN

Self catering

A stone-built, detached barn conversion just five minutes walk from the centre of Llanfyllin providing quality, well-equipped accommodation with three bedrooms, three bathrooms, a conservatory and garden.

Llanfyllin is a small town nestling in the foothills of the Berwyn Mountains. It received its market charter in 1293 and still boasts its Mayor and Town Council. There are shops, pubs and a restaurant to satisfy most needs.

The cottage has central heating supplied by wood-burning boiler (looked after by the owner) and solar water heating. All fuel is included in the price.

The ground floor is wheelchair accessible. There is off-road parking for two cars next to the cottage.

Sorry no pets and no smoking. A wifi service is available,
