

WYRCWS LLANFYLLIN WORKHOUSE

Based on the outskirts of Llanfyllin. Y Dolydd is one of the few remaining Victorian Workhouses.

A community project works to preserve this historic building and bring it back to life. There are presently 12 units rented to individuals working in arts and crafts. A Venue where live events are held to raise funds and a gallery set up for exhibitions from local artists.

There are many events throughout the year which are aimed at raising funds to restore the building and make necessary improvements to the grounds.

To be part of this why not take out a membership – every member helps to make this project work. Check out the website for more information:- www.llanfyllinworkhouse.org

INNER KALM

Change your mind to change your life.

Jean works with survivors of abuse and people who want to sort out their lives in order to have better relationships and be able to create their own future rather than being at the effect of others. By improving the way you communicate you receive better responses there by enhancing your life.

STAR SENT CREATIONS

Each of our story-telling chairs is lovingly created using wonderful recycled and reclaimed wood. Made specifically to order, our chairs already have a tale to tell and captivate the imaginations of young and old. You could come on a two day course with us and with a little help you can create your own chair. We are always delighted to receive enquiries.
